

The Intelligencer.

FATHER ZEVELY, of the Mannington family, has put out a circular announcing the anniversary of their paper, wooden, the linen, crystal, silver and golden wedding on the 30th of January next. He says in this circular that inasmuch as these various anniversaries were neglected at the proper date of their occurrence, as the years rolled by, he and his partner propose to celebrate them all together. We suspect that there is something of a well in the ancient father's venerable relic of the past as we know him to be, we can hardly credit that one so vivacious, fit to be so frisky, has really survived fifty years of married life.

DEATH OF EX-MAYOR CRANGLE.—We regret to announce the death of Henry Crangle, Esq., which occurred yesterday morning at 5 o'clock at his residence on Chapline street, Centre Wheeling, after a protracted illness. At the time of his decease Mr. Crangle was cashier of the City Bank, but for many years was a partner in the firm of Crangle & Co., who did a large and lucrative business in the grocery trade. He was also Mayor of the city during the civil war. As a business man he was upright in all his dealings as a citizen and public official he stood high in the estimation of his fellow citizens and his social life was noted for that warm-hearted generosity which secures both esteem and friendship.

We are indebted to Mr. J. H. Woodward of this city, who with his family is sojourning at Birmingham, Ala., for a copy of the Iron Age published at that place, which by the way is located in the heart of the famous mineral region of Alabama. Mr. Woodward writes us that the Iron Age is very dear for the present in that region, which is not surprising, and that the people are giving more attention to agriculture. We notice in the paper an address from Col. Thomas Peters, on behalf of the Jefferson County Iron Mining Society, which sets forth in very fair and somewhat unique terms the inducements to people to move to that region. Land is cheap, the climate genial, and the future promising. Every body is expected to come, and when they do come they are promised a cordial and even gratuitous entertainment. The Colonel is a very clever and enterprising sort of a man.

THE WHEELING HERALD of yesterday makes a dispassionate yet forcible appeal to the citizens of that corporation to go to the polls next Thursday and vote to authorize the issue of the $10,000 in bonds asked for by the Wheeling Iron Works. The paper makes a dispassionate yet forcible appeal to the citizens of that corporation to go to the polls next Thursday and vote to authorize the issue of the $10,000 in bonds asked for by the Wheeling Iron Works. The paper makes a dispassionate yet forcible appeal to the citizens of that corporation to go to the polls next Thursday and vote to authorize the issue of the $10,000 in bonds asked for by the Wheeling Iron Works.

THE Waverly Literary Society very generously waived their right to Franzheim's Hall, and have engaged Weibel Hall for the season. The Masonic fraternity will meet hereafter at Franzheim's Hall.

WE would suggest to our friends in Wheeling that the next time they have a fire there to telephone to the fire department and will send down a fire department that is of some service.

WE have been requested to call the attention of the police to the rowdies who are in the habit of congregating in the streets of this city, who are in the habit of congregating in the streets of this city, who are in the habit of congregating in the streets of this city.

ALL that is wanted to complete the bliss of about two millions of young couples in the United States and Canada is a few inches of snow, so that they may go out behind a string of jingling bells from supper till midnight, and come home fixed for chills during the remainder of the winter, and a new cuticle for their ears and noses.

THE river was reported falling last evening, with 9 feet in the channel.

THE departures yesterday were the Market Boy for Pittsburgh at A. M.; the Express for Parkersburg at noon; the Fearless and barges passed down with coal and merchandise.

THE Hudson arrived from Cincinnati at 2 P. M., and will return this afternoon. The Courier is this morning's Parkersburg packet.

THE Granite State will pass down this morning, and the Salt Valley and Carrie Brooks will pass up to-night.

THE river is very little of interest to the general reader in the river news these days. The regular routine of arrivals and departures is about all the reporter hears.

THE river is very little of interest to the general reader in the river news these days. The regular routine of arrivals and departures is about all the reporter hears.

THE river is very little of interest to the general reader in the river news these days. The regular routine of arrivals and departures is about all the reporter hears.

THE river is very little of interest to the general reader in the river news these days. The regular routine of arrivals and departures is about all the reporter hears.

THE river is very little of interest to the general reader in the river news these days. The regular routine of arrivals and departures is about all the reporter hears.

shows enterprise. The new buildings are far superior to those destroyed. It has taken somewhere between $2,000 and $3,000 to erect them. The machinery for hoisting the coal is greatly superior to anything that they have yet had. Coal will be furnished in a few days to all who wish it.

Our County Court adjourned a few days ago until to-day. It has now been in session more than three weeks and there is talk of making an effort to make it a permanent arrangement, at least when we have nothing else going on. It would surely be a convenience. True, it would tax the people somewhat heavily, but what of that compared to the amount of justice dispensed and the happy effect it would have upon the morals of our people.

Although we have the name of being a strictly temperance town, the jug line between this and Wheeling seems to be doing a thriving business. It seems that our laws are somehow powerless to arrest the traffic.

A good part of the time of our County Court at each of its sittings is spent on whisky cases. Our Prosecuting Attorney does all that man can do, and there is a failure somewhere. Where it is?

BISHOP CUMMINS called the attention of the members of the Reformed Episcopal Church to the fact that December 2, completed two years of the existence of the church. The Bishop notes the following facts as matter for reflection:

1. The Reformed Episcopal Church is a church to the prayers of many who felt the burden of a Prayer-Book marked with unscriptural teachings. 2. The church was begun in 1873, and is upheld by prayer. 3. It originated in schemes of man's devising, and was preceded by no hidden mystery. 4. Like the Reformation, it burst forth in different places at the same time. 5. The church has received marked tokens of the guiding hand of God in its affairs. 6. The church had on December 2, 1873, eight clergymen, a score of laymen, and not a single congregation. It now has six-two clergymen and fifty congregations.

A FESTIVAL was given at La Belle Hall last night for the benefit of the La Belle Mission Sunday School.

WIFE BEATING.—Justice Bellville yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of Joseph Leary upon a charge of beating his wife. Constable Bumbarger is looking for Leary.

SOME twenty-five or thirty young couples were dancing on the deck of the steamer Hudson last night. Kramer furnished the music. The party took upon the boat.

A YOUNG man who was passing the Steam House at an early hour yesterday morning was drenched to the skin by a bucket of water thrown from a bed room window by a careless border.

THE Waverly Literary Society very generously waived their right to Franzheim's Hall, and have engaged Weibel Hall for the season. The Masonic fraternity will meet hereafter at Franzheim's Hall.

WE would suggest to our friends in Wheeling that the next time they have a fire there to telephone to the fire department and will send down a fire department that is of some service.

WE have been requested to call the attention of the police to the rowdies who are in the habit of congregating in the streets of this city, who are in the habit of congregating in the streets of this city, who are in the habit of congregating in the streets of this city.

ALL that is wanted to complete the bliss of about two millions of young couples in the United States and Canada is a few inches of snow, so that they may go out behind a string of jingling bells from supper till midnight, and come home fixed for chills during the remainder of the winter, and a new cuticle for their ears and noses.

THE river was reported falling last evening, with 9 feet in the channel.

THE departures yesterday were the Market Boy for Pittsburgh at A. M.; the Express for Parkersburg at noon; the Fearless and barges passed down with coal and merchandise.

THE Hudson arrived from Cincinnati at 2 P. M., and will return this afternoon. The Courier is this morning's Parkersburg packet.

THE Granite State will pass down this morning, and the Salt Valley and Carrie Brooks will pass up to-night.

THE river is very little of interest to the general reader in the river news these days. The regular routine of arrivals and departures is about all the reporter hears.

THE river is very little of interest to the general reader in the river news these days. The regular routine of arrivals and departures is about all the reporter hears.

THE river is very little of interest to the general reader in the river news these days. The regular routine of arrivals and departures is about all the reporter hears.

THE river is very little of interest to the general reader in the river news these days. The regular routine of arrivals and departures is about all the reporter hears.

THE river is very little of interest to the general reader in the river news these days. The regular routine of arrivals and departures is about all the reporter hears.

THE river is very little of interest to the general reader in the river news these days. The regular routine of arrivals and departures is about all the reporter hears.

WASHINGTON HALL BEFORE IT WAS BURNED.

We are indebted to Mr. Will. Young, of the firm of Harper & Bro., wholesale hat dealers, for the above cut of the handsome and spacious edifice lately standing on the corner of Twelfth and Market streets, known as Washington Hall, that was destroyed by fire on the morning of Tuesday last.

This building was for many years the principal assembly hall in the city. Within its walls have gathered one time and another some of the most brilliant audiences ever seen in Wheeling, drawn together by the fame of great orators and artists. The most renowned singers and musical performers of the world have entertained our people there for the last quarter of a century. And notwithstanding the comparatively early day in the march of improvement in our midst in which it was erected, it remained one of the chief architectural ornaments of the city.

For the sake of its memories as well as its handsome and imposing proportions every body in Wheeling deprecates its loss. We trust that at an early day we shall see it rising again, Phoenix like, from its ashes, to stand forever as a monument of the public spirit of its stockholders.

WASHINGTON. NEW YORK.

President's Message Approved. WASHINGTON, D. C., December 3.—The President's message was approved by the Cabinet, yesterday, to whom it was carefully read. To-day manifest copies are being made for the press. Its exact length has not been ascertained, though it will be considerably longer than the President's previous messages. It cannot yet be ascertained whether it will be sent to Congress on Monday or Tuesday, as it will depend on the time consumed in the organization of the House and the reception of the notification of the fact by the President.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY'S REPORT. The report of the Secretary of the Treasury on Finance is in press. It will be about the same length as such previous reports. The estimates will not, it is said, exceed those of last year. They have not yet been printed, but copies will be laid on the desks of the members of Congress on Monday.

THE Titus-Utes Divorce Case. LOUISVILLE, December 3.—Chancellor Bruce this morning rendered his decision in the Titus-Utes divorce case, granting a decree of divorce to Mrs. Alice O. Titus from Tracy W. Titus. The maiden name—Alice O. Oates—of the plaintiff is restored, as is also the property which passed to Titus by their marriage. This is all she asks. Mr. Titus, when last heard from, was starting on his way in Australia, and in all probability has not heard of the decision. The suit, which has thus been decided has been in progress since the 30th day of last July. In Mrs. Titus' petition she states that they were married on the 23d day of November, 1873; that after this marriage, without her consent, Titus contracted and cohabited with another woman, and that he was drunk, accompanied with a wasting of their estate, without making any suitable provision, or in fact any provision whatever for the support of his wife, who has earned her own living starting through the States as an actress.

CHICAGO. Body Identified. CHICAGO, December 3.—The body of the woman taken from Graceland Cemetery and sent in a barrel to the office of the United States Express Company, has been identified as that of Mrs. Emma P. Adams, wife of a prominent citizen of New York. The body was buried on the 20th of November, and was exhumed last Wednesday. Warrants are out for the arrest of Wilder, but the officers have not been able to find him up to the present time.

THE Memphis City Bonds. MEMPHIS, December 3.—In the case of the bondholders against the city of Memphis, the Supreme Court of Tennessee has decided that the $1,000,000 in bonds issued by Mayor Leffell in 1868 was illegal, but that the excess of $135,000 was legal, as he was only authorized to issue $1,000,000. Secondly, that though the bonds had been sold at a greater discount than 6 per cent, the transaction was not illegal or fraudulent, and the city can neither plead nor sue the bonds. Thirdly, that the city is compelled to pay the taxes necessary to pay the interest on the bonds issued prior to 1875, notwithstanding that the new charter limits the amount to be levied.

THE Cabinet in Session. WASHINGTON, December 3.—The Cabinet was in session four hours to-day, principally occupied with the consideration of the President's message, which is now complete with the exception of a few closing paragraphs. They also considered the report of General Balckner to the court of inquiry to examine the charge that he was connected with the whisky frauds. Those who know the result decline at present to make it known. There is a belief that the request will be granted and that a detail of officers will be appointed by the Secretary of War.

BOLD ROBBERY. Toledo, December 3.—About 1 o'clock this afternoon a man stepped into the office of the City Auditor and informed the clerk in charge that a lady in a carriage at the door desired to see him relative to the purchase of some bonds. While the clerk was thus engaged the stranger attacked a box containing $2,100 in currency and made good his escape.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING LETTERS. ROCHESTER, December 3.—Nathan Sprague, a colored clerk in the post office for about two years, was arrested this morning for stealing letters and pleaded guilty.

SHOOTING. OMAHA, December 3.—Chas. Hensinger committed suicide by shooting himself through the head, last night at Grand Island Neb. Cause unknown.

FLOPING MILL BURNED. LYONS, La., December 3.—Hall's brick flouting mill burned here last night. Loss $15,000; insurance $5,000.

DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN. NEW YORK, December 3.—A young man named John J. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Co., died at his residence in New York City, after a protracted illness.

THE DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN. NEW YORK, December 3.—A young man named John J. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Co., died at his residence in New York City, after a protracted illness.

THE DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN. NEW YORK, December 3.—A young man named John J. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Co., died at his residence in New York City, after a protracted illness.

THE DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN. NEW YORK, December 3.—A young man named John J. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Co., died at his residence in New York City, after a protracted illness.

THE DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN. NEW YORK, December 3.—A young man named John J. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Co., died at his residence in New York City, after a protracted illness.

THE DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN. NEW YORK, December 3.—A young man named John J. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Co., died at his residence in New York City, after a protracted illness.

THE DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN. NEW YORK, December 3.—A young man named John J. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Co., died at his residence in New York City, after a protracted illness.

THE DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN. NEW YORK, December 3.—A young man named John J. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Co., died at his residence in New York City, after a protracted illness.

THE DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN. NEW YORK, December 3.—A young man named John J. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Co., died at his residence in New York City, after a protracted illness.

By Telegraph

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

TO THE DAILY INTELLIGENCER

Mrs. Moulton to Plymouth Church. NEW YORK, December 3.—The Sun says that Mrs. Moulton has addressed a letter to the members of Plymouth Church in reply to the one addressed to her, and adopted by them on Friday evening. She says:

I don't believe there was any one more faithful to Plymouth Church than I was up to the time I became acquainted with the great wickedness which Mr. Beecher had committed in his relations with Mrs. Tilton. After that it did not seem possible for me to go to the church, and hear him preach, and take sacrament from his hands, and I stopped doing so. I could not with any patience hear him preach of purity and Christian joy, while I knew of his secret agony and his knowledge of his hidden sin. That I did not go elsewhere for worship and the sacrament was almost wholly owing to him. He begged me again and again to come back, and when I said that I could not till he had acknowledged his sin, and atoned for it as far as he could, he was sad and depressed even to tears. Yet if I had gone away from Plymouth Church, I should have been the cause of the sin coming to our house, and it would have attracted attention and been a cause of suspicion, and would have embarrassed him very much as well as my husband, who was then trying hard, under Mr. Beecher's constant agency, to keep the secret from the public. I should not have known what to say if asked the reason, and it might have been the means of doing great injury to those whom I wanted to shield. Mr. Beecher, too, had more than any other represented the Christian religion, and to bring reproach upon him seemed an injury, so I labored from going elsewhere lest it should harm him and indirectly bring things to light which he was all the while endeavoring to conceal, and which did not belong to me to disclose. Mr. Beecher surely ought to be the very last man in the world to blame me for what I did in his behalf. He knew I could not speak the truth more perfectly than I have spoken it if I was standing this morning before God's throne of judgment. When Mr. Tilton's name was dropped by you two years ago, I told Mr. Beecher that I was afraid you would some time want to demand the same way, and he then most earnestly assured me that it should never be done; that he would see to it himself that I never should be in any way injured by his Church. I really do not see how Mr. Beecher, knowing as well as he does the perfect truth of what I say, knowing how he used to speak at our house and heap blame upon himself for his great sin, and how often he spoke to my husband and myself of the utter dispair in him to be except for our comfort and help, I cannot see how it was possible for him to stand up and read this letter to me in your presence without his very soul giving way.

Mrs. Moulton refers to other parts of the letter, and says there are a great many things in it which are incorrect and injurious, some of which she mentions, as follows:

That as far as the Church or the Committee knew I had never made any statement impugning the purity of Mr. Beecher except in a court of justice, but in that very court I had stated under oath that I had made precisely the same statement to you, long ago, and in my leading members and officers of my church, telling him that Mr. Beecher's sin was adultery, and that he and Mrs. Tilton had both confessed it to me. If the statement was a slander, I had declared the act of uttering the slander before the world, and might have been called to account for it. I never knew that false swearing in the court of justice is an offense which the church of Christ is unwilling or unable to punish, and if you think that I have committed an offense in this solemn hour; that I lied in order to injure the minister, whom I had loved as much as any of you, and whom I had done my very best to uphold and comfort for three dismal years, through the time of our anguish which he was suffering from you, all the more should I be tried and condemned instead of dropping my name. The letter concludes as follows: I had a very heavy burden to carry and I am sorry to say that the first act of christian attention which I have received from the church in the five years past, was a letter from you, in which you proposed to the roll; the next evening my proposal to you in my previous letter was that you could unite with me in calling a council of the church, before which you should state your reasons for your action, and I should state mine, and which should impartially judge between us. The proposal I understand you to accept the questions thus coming up for discussion. I think ought to be these: First. Have my convictions in regard to the guilty conduct of Mr. Beecher been justified by the evidence I have had. Second. If they have been justified, ought I to have attended his ministry, and received sacrament from his hands, and kept by the reasons which I stated, from withdrawing from church when I had stated to the church my reasons for being absent from services, and having promised to be present, and then I to have been thus dropped without further trial, and with no council. If I was improperly removed from Plymouth Church, will the Council give me a certificate of the facts upon which I can enter another church? Third. Have I been well able to judge whether the six questions which you propose to have submitted to the council cover the whole ground in this case, which appear to me less distinct perhaps because I do not understand them so well, and mine between them. I suppose it is my right to have something to say about the questions to be submitted, and accordingly I propose yours to be submitted as you put them, and that these of mine be added to them. In this way I think the whole case between us, and the questions we wish to have answered, will have an equal chance with yours. When you notify me of the acceptance of this proposition will you please also to send me the names of ten or twelve churches which you would wish to invite to the council, with two or three experienced and wise ministers who will be devoted to prayers for Sunday schools, and will be conducted by Dr. Newton, Messrs. Moody and Sankey taking the day for much needed rest.

Accidentally Shot. CINCINNATI, December 3.—A boy named Allie Jones, 15 years of age, was accidentally shot and killed this morning by Robert Jackson, aged 16. The boys were firing at a mark when the accident occurred.

Going into Liquidation. NEW YORK, December 3.—The Mutual Benefit Savings Bank have decided to go into liquidation. The depositors will receive 95 cents on the dollar.

Appointed Receiver. LOUISVILLE, December 3.—George McLeod, an engineer of experience and a well known railroad man, was to-day appointed Receiver of the Louisville, Cincinnati & Lexington Short Line Railroad, to succeed Samuel Gill, who is now suffering from aberration produced by brain fever.

Democratic Nominations. NASHVILLE, TENN., December 3.—A special to the American says a Democratic convention in the Fourth District to-day nominated H. Y. Riddle, of Wilson county, for Congress, to succeed J. M. Head, deceased. A nomination is about made, and the letters of invitation can at once be sent out. Respectfully yours, E. C. MOULTON.

Murdered. WATERTOWN, N. Y., December 3.—Sarah Conklin, fourteen years of age, was murdered on Tuesday while returning from school through a piece of woods in Rutland. A boy named Rutan, aged 16, has been arrested on suspicion.

Foreign News. ENGLAND. LONDON, December 3.—A servant captured by the Malays at the time of the murder of Mr. Burch, the English resident, escaped and returned to the British headquarters and reports that Maharajah Lela who is constructing large stockades, declares that the Malays will resist the English to the utmost. Sir Ven. Jervis the newly appointed Governor of Straits Settlement, is at Penang preparing for attacking the Malays. They are making rapid progress.

TURKISH PEACE NEGOTIATIONS. A special from Berlin contains the following details in regard to the negotiations in the Turkish inspection question: Count Andrássy, the Austrian Prime Minister, has submitted to St. Petersburg the proposal he was entrusted to draft. In it he enumerates the reforms that Turkey should pledge to the insurgents and the guarantees that the Great Powers should demand for their fulfillment. Prince Bismarck and Prince Gortchakoff have discussed the leading points of this document and expressed their approval of it. As soon as the Imperial Governments have definitely accepted the proposal the other powers of Europe will be invited to participate.

Colonel Owen has resigned his position as Centennial Commissioner. Colonel Herbert Sandford and Professor Archer, director of the Edinburgh Museum, have been appointed Joint Commissioners.

The weather in England has been intensely cold. West Richardson, the well known gun maker, is reported to have been frozen to death while on a shooting excursion.

LONDON, December 4.—The Ministry, taking into consideration the inconvenience of the winter session, will not call Parliament together earlier than usual.

PARIS, December 3.—The municipality of Paris has contributed $6,000 towards the subscription to send a deputation of French workmen to the Philadelphia Exhibition.

MADRID, December 3.—Consejo del Castillo Gen. Jovellar is in the north as chief of the King's staff.

ATLANTA, December 3.—Gov. Smith has just addressed a letter to the people of Georgia urging them to send delegates to the Convention which will meet in Chicago on the 10th. He says to restore our property we must look to our great national highways (roads, rivers and water lines first, while other means of transportation should not be neglected. The government of the United States is the only competent power to improve and control these, and they should be maintained as free public highways for the use of everybody. We must look to the United States government for these improvements, opening these lines will go far towards solving the questions of transportation by a legitimate competition which will benefit the railroad industry with other interests, hence the false antagonism between the two should be done away with. He strongly deprecates the fight which is constantly going on between the great industries of the country, these industries are not naturally antagonistic. He says we of the cotton States have no warfare to make upon any other industry. He says we should be able to do away with the tariff for the advancement of all. Georgia has no war to make on the manufacturers or other sections, but on the contrary her true interest will be found in urging the advance of all these, and to this end should labor. He urges all the different interests of the country to send representatives to Chicago to consult upon these questions, and if the same sound good sense which characterizes the ordinary business transactions of our people be brought to bear upon these questions it will do more towards a solution than all the fine speeches of the present generation. The letter speaks the sentiments of a large majority of the people of this State.

Shutting Down the Collieries. POTTSVILLE, PA., December 3.—In consequence of the overstocked condition of the coal market, the Pennsylvania Coal and Iron Company will tomorrow direct the stoppage of thirty of their forty collieries in this region, the remaining ten having a producing capacity of 4,000 tons daily to continue to operate for the purpose of supplying the market. About 5,000 men and boys are thus thrown out of employment. Twenty-five individual collieries will also suspend during the week and it is thought that by December 10, suspensions will be general and over 10,000 people will be thrown out of employment in the coal region. The suspension may not last over two months though fears are entertained that work will not be resumed till spring.

The iron trade continues dull; orders have been issued by the Redding Tool & Iron Company to stop work at their various mines where six hundred men are now employed.

Weather Report. OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES WEATHER SERVICE, WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—A. M. PROBABILITY.

Saturday in the South Atlantic States northerly winds, slightly warmer and cloudy weather, a stationary barometer and a light rain.

For the Gulf States a falling barometer, higher temperature, easterly winds with clouds and rain.

For Lower Lakes and Middle States, stationary or falling barometer, northerly to southeast winds, warmer, cloudy or partly cloudy weather, and possibly light rain on the Atlantic coast.

Moody and Sankey Meetings. PHILADELPHIA, December 3.—The prayer meetings of Moody and Sankey continue to be well attended. To-day temperance was made the special subject, and the requests embracing many from persons for near relatives, and also including one that liquor may not be sold in the centennial grounds during the Exposition. To-morrow's meeting will be devoted to prayers for Sunday schools, and will be conducted by Dr. Newton, Messrs. Moody and Sankey taking the day for much needed rest.

Accidentally Shot. CINCINNATI, December 3.—A boy named Allie Jones, 15 years of age, was accidentally shot and killed this morning by Robert Jackson, aged 16. The boys were firing at a mark when the accident occurred.

Going into Liquidation. NEW YORK, December 3.—The Mutual Benefit Savings Bank have decided to go into liquidation. The depositors will receive 95 cents on the dollar.

Appointed Receiver. LOUISVILLE, December 3.—George McLeod, an engineer of experience and a well known railroad man, was to-day appointed Receiver of the Louisville, Cincinnati & Lexington Short Line Railroad, to succeed Samuel Gill, who is now suffering from aberration produced by brain fever.

Democratic Nominations. NASHVILLE, TENN., December 3.—A special to the American says a Democratic convention in the Fourth District to-day nominated H. Y. Riddle, of Wilson county, for Congress, to succeed J. M. Head, deceased. A nomination is about made, and the letters of invitation can at once be sent out. Respectfully yours, E. C. MOULTON.

By Telegraph

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

TO THE DAILY INTELLIGENCER

Mrs. Moulton to Plymouth Church. NEW YORK, December 3.—The Sun says that Mrs. Moulton has addressed a letter to the members of Plymouth Church in reply to the one addressed to her, and adopted by them on Friday evening. She says:

I don't believe there was any one more faithful to Plymouth Church than I was up to the time I became acquainted with the great wickedness which Mr. Beecher had committed in his relations with Mrs. Tilton. After that it did not seem possible for me to go to the church, and hear him preach, and take sacrament from his hands, and I stopped doing so. I could not with any patience hear him preach of purity and Christian joy, while I knew of his secret agony and his knowledge of his hidden sin. That I did not go elsewhere for worship and the sacrament was almost wholly owing to him. He begged me again and again to come back, and when I said that I could not till he had acknowledged his sin, and atoned for it as far as he could, he was sad and depressed even to tears. Yet if I had gone away from Plymouth Church, I should have been the cause of the sin coming to our house, and it would have attracted attention and been a cause of suspicion, and would have embarrassed him very much as well as my husband, who was then trying hard, under Mr. Beecher's constant agency, to keep the secret from the public. I should not have known what to say if asked the reason, and it might have been the means of doing great injury to those whom I wanted to shield. Mr. Beecher, too, had more than any other represented the Christian religion, and to bring reproach upon him seemed an injury, so I labored from going elsewhere lest it should harm him and indirectly bring things to light which he was all the while endeavoring to conceal, and which did not belong to me to disclose. Mr. Beecher surely ought to be the very last man in the world to blame me for what I did in his behalf. He knew I could not speak the truth more perfectly than I have spoken it if I was standing this morning before God's throne of judgment. When Mr. Tilton's name was dropped by you two years ago, I told Mr. Beecher that I was afraid you would some time want to demand the same way, and he then most earnestly assured me that it should never be done; that he would see to it himself that I never should be in any way injured by his Church. I really do not see how Mr. Beecher, knowing as well as he does the perfect truth of what I say, knowing how he used to speak at our house and heap blame upon himself for his great sin, and how often he spoke to my husband and myself of the utter dispair in him to be except for our comfort and help, I cannot see how it was possible for him to stand up and read this letter to me in your presence without his very soul giving way.

Mrs. Moulton refers to other parts of the letter, and says there are a great many things in it which are incorrect and injurious, some of which she mentions, as follows:

That as far as the Church or the Committee knew I had never made any statement impugning the purity of Mr. Beecher except in a court of justice, but in that very court I had stated under oath that I had made precisely the same statement to you, long ago, and in my leading members and officers of my church, telling him that Mr. Beecher's sin was adultery, and that he and Mrs. Tilton had both confessed it to me. If the statement was a slander, I had declared the act of uttering the slander before the world, and might have been called to account for it. I never knew that false swearing in the court of justice is an offense which the church of Christ is unwilling or unable to punish, and if you think that I have committed an offense in this solemn hour; that I lied in order to injure the minister, whom I had loved as much as any of you, and whom I had done my very best to uphold and comfort for three dismal years, through the time of our anguish which he was suffering from you, all the more should I be tried and condemned instead of dropping my name. The letter concludes as follows: I had a very heavy burden to carry and I am sorry to say that the first act of christian attention which I have received from the church in the five years past, was a letter from you, in which you proposed to the roll; the next evening my proposal to you in my previous letter was that you could unite with me in calling a council of the church, before which you should state your reasons for your action, and I should state mine, and which should impartially judge between us. The proposal I understand you to accept the questions thus coming up for discussion. I think ought to be these: First. Have my convictions in regard to the guilty conduct of Mr. Beecher been justified by the evidence I have had. Second. If they have been justified, ought I to have attended his ministry, and received sacrament from his hands, and kept by the reasons which I stated, from withdrawing from church when I had stated to the church my reasons for being absent from services, and having promised to be present, and then I to have been thus dropped without further trial, and with no council. If I was improperly removed from Plymouth Church, will the Council give me a certificate of the facts upon which I can enter another church? Third. Have I been well able to judge whether the six questions which you propose to have submitted to the council cover the whole ground in this case, which appear to me less distinct perhaps because I do not understand them so well, and mine between them. I suppose it is my right to have something to say about the questions to be submitted, and accordingly I propose yours to be submitted as you put them, and that these of mine be added to them. In this way I think the whole case between us, and the questions we wish to have answered, will have an equal chance with yours. When you notify me of the acceptance of this proposition will you please also to send me the names of ten or twelve churches which you would wish to invite to the council, with two or three experienced and wise ministers who will be devoted to prayers for Sunday schools, and will be conducted by Dr. Newton, Messrs. Moody and Sankey taking the day for much needed rest.

Accidentally Shot. CINCINNATI, December 3.—A boy named Allie Jones, 15 years of age, was accidentally shot and killed this morning by Robert Jackson, aged 16. The boys were firing at a mark when the accident occurred.

Going into Liquidation. NEW YORK, December 3.—The Mutual Benefit Savings Bank have decided to go into liquidation. The depositors will receive 95 cents on the dollar.

Appointed Receiver. LOUISVILLE, December 3.—George McLeod, an engineer of experience and a well known railroad man, was to-day appointed Receiver of the Louisville, Cincinnati & Lexington Short Line Railroad, to succeed Samuel Gill, who is now suffering from aberration produced by brain fever.

Democratic Nominations. NASHVILLE, TENN., December 3.—A special to the American says a Democratic convention in the Fourth District to-day nominated H. Y. Riddle, of Wilson county, for Congress, to succeed J. M. Head, deceased. A nomination is about made, and the letters of invitation can at once be sent out. Respectfully yours, E. C. MOULTON.

Murdered. WATERTOWN, N. Y., December 3.—Sarah Conklin, fourteen years of age, was murdered on Tuesday while returning from school through a piece of woods in Rutland. A boy named Rutan, aged 16, has been arrested on suspicion.

Foreign News. ENGLAND. LONDON, December 3.—A servant captured by the Malays at the time of the murder of Mr. Burch, the English resident, escaped and returned to the British headquarters and reports that Maharajah Lela who is constructing large stock